Sub: General Election to Lok Sabha 2014 - partial relaxation of MCC provisions - regarding.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the Commission has decided that in the States of Odisha, Maharashtra, Chhattisgarh, Goa and Jharkhand, where polling has been completed, all the normal administrative works/development activities are allowed to be taken up, except in such districts where re-poll, if any, is pending. In districts where repoll is pending, after completion of repoll the said relaxations will be available.

However, no officials contented with the conduct of election shall be transferred till the entire election process is completed and no review meetings can be held by the Minister or any other political functionaries with the election related officials.

Please inform all concerned for information.

Yours faithfully,

(R.K. Srivastava)
Principal Secretary
